

Busy Times for Thieves

It was announced yesterday that the residence of Mrs. Graham Spencer, 1822 Pine street, had been entered by thieves several weeks ago and robbed of two bicycles and clothing worth $100. A thief who invaded the laundry of John Cane, 4740 Richmond street, stole $11 from the cash drawer. Harry Sissig's pool room, 1207 North Sixth street, was broken into and the contents of the cash drawer were stolen. A burglar was discovered breaking into George Swift's tailor shop, 226 South Eighth street, but escaped.
